WELCOMING NICHOLAS & SIBONEY INTO OUR MIDST: HOLY BAPTISM, SUNDAY, APRIL 21, AT 11:00 AM

Holy Baptism is such a blessed occasion in the life of our St. Michael's community, and we are thrilled to have another one this month. We are welcoming this young couple into our midst—Nicholas is being baptized by full immersion in our baptistry, with Siboney as his sponsor. All are invited to the 11:00 am service to renew, yet again, our baptismal covenant in companionship with one another. You can learn more about Nicholas and Siboney below, and greet them on Sunday morning.

My name is Nicholas Wilkerson, and I am 23 years old. I am originally from down south of Houston close to Galveston. I moved down to Austin in 2021 to chase my dreams and go to college where I've been working very hard as a full-time student studying to get my bachelor's degree. My testimony with the Lord has been something I have been a part of my whole life. My grandpa is a pastor so I have been in the church since I was just a young boy. But I was never baptized and moving to college, I was very busy and found myself stop going to church. My soon-to-be fiancée and I wanted to find a nice church but had trouble finding Saint Michael's. We went to a couple of different churches but liked Saint Michael's the best. I have been getting closer with the Lord since coming to Saint Michael's and really can't wait to get baptized at this amazing church.

I'm Siboney

Alcala; I'm from the small but very well-known town, New Braunfels.

My father passing has changed me for the better. As I've traveled to Austin in searching for a better way of living. I discovered the best way to life is being connected with our Lord and savior. My soon to be fiancé and I wanted to deepen our bond and find strength to endure trailing time away with the grace and faith that Jesus showed his years of life. We are grateful to have found St. Michael's, as it has been a turning point in our lives. God says "come to me," and I'm blessed to have a partner who wants to seek the Lord with me. We are so happy to be a part of a church that shows us Jesus's Love.

NOTES

Second Town Hall Meeting & Fr. John's Sabbatical: Building St. Michael's Future

April 21 at 10:00 am (between services)

These town hall meetings are meant to engage the parish community in a broader dialogue concerning the growth and future direction of our parish. Together, we aim to co-create the future we envision and initiate discussions, prayer, and discernment regarding potential next steps in relation to a building campaign in the coming year(s). This collaborative effort will enable the rector and vestry to make more informed decisions in the upcoming fall our path forward.

Fr. John will be taking a sabbatical from April 29 to August 18. Clergy sabbaticals are strongly encouraged by the diocese every 6-7 years, and his last sabbatical was in 2016. For those who may be hearing about this for the first time, Fr. John wants to assure you that he has been collaborating with the vestry, staff, and a small committee for over 18 months, and St. Michael's is fully prepared to thrive and grow during his absence. However, he wants to ensure there was ample time for questions so that his absence is not confusing or unexpected.

To facilitate this, Fr. John will be hosting an FAQ session at 10:00 am on April 28, where you can join him for a farewell and learn more about his plans during his time away. In the meantime, if you have questions about Fr. John's sabbatical, you are encouraged to look at this FAQ.
