Today and Upcoming Events

Sermon Series: How to Read the Bible: An Introduction for Beginners, Skeptics, and Spiritual Nomads

Rev. Brin will be preaching a series over the next three weeks about what it means to engage with Holy Scripture. She'll look at the stories of the patriarchs in the Book of Genesis that are in our lectionary cycle this summer and explore how we might find our own story in the pages of the Bible. The first sermon in the series, "How not to read the Bible" is today. Don't miss it!

Open Arms Integrity Austin panel on July 29, 2-4 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Members of the LGBTQ community will share their walk with faith, where it has taken them and the path that each one is on. There will be a panel talk and then each panelist will move to a table and answer any questions that you may have. Open to all.

Join Team Resilience - St. Michael's Church for the September 23rd NAMIWalk!

The members of St. Michael's Episcopal Church are among the most caring, courageous and thoughtful people around. Despite the rarified air of Westlake, our families have been affected by mental illness - that equal-opportunity brain disorder. And that's why St. Michael's has decided to sponsor a team to participate in this year's NAMI Walk. Contact Barbara Johnson (barbarajohnson1468@gmail.com) to learn more or to walk and/or donate, go to <https://www.namiwalks.org/index.cfm?fuseaction=donordrive.event&eventID=657>.

Christian Formation and Education for the summer at 9am

Sunday Seekers Book Study in the Bride's Room We will be starting a new book 'How to Read the Apocalypse' by Jean-Pierre Prévost. Bring your own copy or contact Phyllis Blees (phyllis.blees@gmail.com) if you'd like to order one. New participants are welcome to join at any time.

Children's Sunday School in the Education Wing. Our Summer program for children, preschool through 5th grade, takes place in room 2. We explore some of our more familiar Bible stories in a relaxed and fun way, incorporating the most popular part of our regular program - snack and games! Each week is a stand alone session so join us whenever you are in town.

Children's Chapel during the 10 am service All children are invited to take part in our new chapel program. Everyone will begin in church together then, during the 'Song of Praise', those children who want to take part will have their own worship service in the Brides room. Chapel will follow the liturgy of the day with readings, prayers, and music and will help the children become familiar with our Episcopal Worship service. We will rejoin families in church at the Passing of the Peace, before Communion.

Saying goodbye to Joanne "Mickey" Moldenhauer

The St. Michael's community lost a friend and longtime parishioner when Mickey Moldenhauer passed away on June 9 of this year. Well-traveled and educated, Mickey also held positions with University of Texas, where her husband Joseph also taught.

Mickey and Joe often visited France, including an exchange professorial term in 1975-76. Other extended travel involved England, Scotland, northern Italy, the Canadian Rockies and Quebec. In addition, Mickey enjoyed camping, canoeing and rafting trips with Joe. An excellent chef, she gravitated to French cuisine. Mickey was predeceased by her brother, Thomas. She is survived by her sister, Charlotte Bernor; by Joe; by David, daughter-in-law Julia Lichtblau, and their children, Zoe and Gabriel; and by Margo Westfall, son-in-law Kim, and their daughter, Brooke.

She was a member of SMEC dating back to the early 1980's and Mickey's own work is something we experience each Sunday while in the worship hall. The purple-hued reredos (or wall hanging) was a project woven by Mickey in the 90's, initially created for the second sanctuary the church built on Bee Caves Rd. The purple color come from the intended purpose of being used during Lent and found a place on the wall behind the altar at that sanctuary. Today, the weave rests on the right side of the worship space as you enter, giving each of us a piece of Mickey's spirit and love for the community every Sunday.

The family is grateful to the staffs of Colonial Gardens and Hospice Austin. A memorial service will be held at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Austin, at 2 p.m. Saturday, September 9. Memorial donations to the Alzheimer's Association and the Alzheimer's Disease Research Foundation will be welcomed.

Credit to the Austin American Statesman for information from Mickey's obituary.
